Cary Simowitz

“Writing the Legal Drama – Fiction or Non-fiction?”

Cary Simowitz is a twenty-eight-year-old playwright hailing from Coral Springs, Florida, currently pursuing his Master of Fine Arts in Playwriting at UCLA's School of Theater, Film, and Television. He is the author of six full-length plays, three one acts, and several ten minute pieces, in addition to multiple works of poetry and short fiction. He received his Bachelor of Arts in English and Psychology from Washington University in St. Louis in 2013. Following undergraduate school, he received his Juris Doctor from Washington University School of Law in 2016, and is licensed to practice law in Missouri and New York. Cary's plays have collectively garnered him modest recognition in over two-dozen competitions across the country.

Cary will discuss writing a “legal” play or screen play. He will focus on supporting legal research as well as writing and publication issues.
